THE BEACHCOMBER.

The scant sympathy which the unfortunate beachcomber receives at the hands of the North China Daily News, and the terrible position of three men of the class at present in prison here with charges of murder hanging over their heads, gives us the excuse—if one were needed—for returning to this pitiful subject. In yesterday's issue we gave an excerpt from an editorial appearing in our northern contemporary, and strongly hinted to the public generally that they should search their innermost consciences, to ascertain just how far some action of theirs might have contributed to the awful plight of the three young men—somebody's sons —who now have the brand of Cain red upon them. Since this particular case is not justice we cannot offend the canons of justice by discussing its merits, but we can ask the people and the Government if something cannot be done to lessen, or obviate, the dreadful state into which penniless men who find their way to this Colony are driven by want or drink. We admit that amongst the heterogeneous types of mankind who drift to our shores like flocks from the sea, are men of the most depraved type, unscrupulous to the last degree, and thoroughly beyond redemption. But there are others. There are men who have been dealt a cruel blow by fortune; men who have fallen simply because poverty knocked at their doors immediately riches flew out of the window, and continued to dog their footsteps relentlessly afterwards. Without, perhaps, being given one opportunity to recover themselves these men have been shoved on from pillar to post, kicked and cuffed by their more fortunate compatriots until the conviction has been brutally driven into them that poverty is the most momentous sin that man can unwittingly commit. To be a rogue and rich is to be respected; to be honest and poor is to be despised. In a country where the white man is the chief worker, the lot of the unfortunate unemployed is bad enough, but in a country such as this, where the major portion of the skilled labour is performed by Chinese, it is ten thousand times worse. There is no chance for him. He has no 'open sesame' credentials to good billets, and his clothes generally reek. His appearance teils against him more than his manner.

The honest heart which might beat beneath a thread-bare, dirty jacket, which speaks eloquently of nights out in odd corners, of bitter journeys on hard decks, is of no concern. There is no room for him anywhere in the limited field to be exploited here, and the pangs of hunger that must surely begin to gnaw at his vitals drives him—where? First to beggary, and later to crime.

And all the time where is the paternal Government? What does it do to recognise its responsibility? Little or nothing! The sooner the beachcomber is got out of its sight the better. Of little consequence is it whether he be flung into gaol or into the harbour, and if he cuts his throat or blows out his brains, well, so much the better; one beachcomber the less. But the Government has a responsibility in this matter—and a very grave one.

In this Colony it has failed to recognise it, and we write this article with the hope that the administrators of this far-away outpost of Empire will try and do something for the unfortunate who from time to time, whether by chance or force of circumstance, are thrown up here destitute and without friends or help. These men are the beachcombers of the East.

In yesterday's issue we stated that a number of beachcombers were present in Court to listen to the case against the three men charged with murder. Mr F. Russell, on behalf of the accused in the Salvo's Home, writes asking us to contradict the statement. He says there were eight white persons in Court who were sailors waiting to go home as passengers, their ships having gone to Vladivostok. We are sorry if the sailors were offended. Our reporter assures us there were several beachcombers in Court.

Hongkong residents little dream of the agencies which, according to the Chinese mind, are working for the Colony's prosperity. On Sunday last, the Hon. A.

W. B. Brewin yesterday afternoon, I was visited by an old Chinese gentleman who was struck with the position of the Colony in the Public Opinion. He expressed his anxiety to see the Colony prosperous, and he said that he was not at all surprised to find that the Government was not doing enough for the poor. He said that he

Methodist minister, favouring stirring in church. 'The expectation of seeing a young woman home,' he says, 'has brought many a man to church for the first time.

Why not have lady persons?

Sir Henry Berkeley yesterday afternoon characterised the doctrine of Taoism as impracticable in the extreme. He totally disbelieved in the doctrine of doing nothing in order that everything should come of itself. Many beachcombers are evidently Taoists.

Home papers are always telling us something about the Chinese. The latest is to the effect that the fishermen wear stockings made from human hair as the best preventive of wet feet. First time we knew that fishermen minded getting their feet wet.

But Mr Dyer Ball might be able to tell us something about it.

Ghosts are plentiful in the East to those to whom it is given power to see them.

According to the Hon. A. W. Brewin, at last evening's meeting of the Odd Volume Society, while there are few people west tidal table given below has been prepared at the Nautical Almanac Office.

The zero of the table corresponds with the zero of the soundings in the Admiralty Charts which has been found to be 4 feet 3 inches below mean low level.

To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add 4 feet 4 inches, and on the gauge at Lamong Dock, Aberdeen, add 10 feet 6 inches to the soundings in the table.

Add 5 minutes 18 seconds to the figure given below to correct to Zone time.
